"War movies around the world"

Japanese War Movies
Wistfully express the tragedy of war

Chinese War Movies
Nothing but people being picked on horribly

English War Movies
You feel like it's just showing a timeline of events on film

French War Movies
Nothing but scenes in gorgeous settings with dialogue like poetry and lovely background music
However the presentation is so surreal I can't understand it

American War Movies
They are fighting the Russians when suddenly aliens attack so then they band together with the Russians to exterminate the aliens

Italian War Movies
Go to Germany, do it with a German girl
Go to fight in Greece, do it with a Greek girl
Go to fight in Russia, do it with a Russian girl
